

Transformers

Project brief:

Transportation of 5
Transformers from
Germany to St.
Petersburg, Russia.

ALS Provided:

Planning
Road Survey
Transportation
Civil works on route
Permits

Critical height solution

ALS' German team successfully completed transportation of 5 transformers (trafos) with a total weight of 117 tons along with spare parts from Germany to St. Petersburg, Russia.

Due to the critical height of the trafos up to 460 cm, ALS prepared an individual solution for the shortest inland part using low beds to the nearest river port, transshipment by mobile crane and barge transportation to POI, Antwerp.

